GET YOUR FREE TREE!

At the Bedford Stuyvesant Restoration Corporation Tree Giveaway

In partnership with the Bedford Stuyvesant Restoration Corporation,
MillionTreesNYC and New York Restoration Project

Saturday April 23, 2011 (Rain or Shine)

1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Restoration Plaza

1368 Fulton Street

Brooklyn, NY

130 trees will be given away to residents of New York City on a first come first-served basis. Limit of one tree per household. Arrive early as quantities are limited, and trees may run out before 3:00 pm.

Limited quantities of redbud, magnolia and pear trees will be available. Please note that trees are intended for planting on private property, and cannot be planted along streets, on rooftops or terraces, or in city parks. Simple tree planting and care instructions come with each tree. All you need is a place to plant, a shovel and access to water!

For questions, contact Jedidah Baptiste at (718) 636-6973 or jbaptiste@restorationplaza.org.

About MillionTreesNYC: Led by the New York City Department of Parks & Recreation and New York Restoration Project (NYRP), MillionTreesNYC is a citywide, public-private initiative that recognizes the benefits trees provide New York City's residents, neighborhoods and environment, with an ambitious goal: to plant and care for one million new trees across the city's five boroughs by 2017.
