

be one in a million!

Friends of Van Cortlandt Park Tree Giveaway

In partnership with MillionTreesNYC and New York Restoration Project and through the generous support of Bloomberg Philanthropies and David Rockefeller

Van Cortlandt Park, Mosholu Ave. & Broadway Entrance

Saturday June 12th and Sunday June 13th
10 am – 1 pm

Free trees, will be available to individuals, families and community groups for planting on private property on a first-come, first-serve basis. All home and property owners are limited to two trees each. Trees weigh approximately 30 pounds and stand 7 – 8 feet tall. All you need is a place to plant, a shovel and access to water.

At the event, learn about the Van Cortlandt Park forest and gardens through planting, games and activities that are good for all ages. Go home with free giveaways and crafts for the kids.

For questions, contact Friends of Van Cortlandt Park: Phone: 718-601-1553 Email: sara@vancortlandtpark.org

About MillionTreesNYC: Led by the New York City Department of Parks & Recreation and New York Restoration Project (NYRP), MillionTreesNYC is a citywide, public-private initiative that recognizes the benefits trees provide New York City's residents, neighborhoods and environment, through an ambitious goal: to plant and care for one million new trees across the City's five boroughs by 2017.

Plant. Protect. Preserve. Participate.

milliontreesNYC
A PLANYC INITIATIVE WITH NYC PARKS AND NEW YORK RESTORATION PROJECT

Visit milliontreesnyc.org or call 311 for more information.

lead sponsors

TOYOTA